SUMMARY

Over the past years I have worked in multiple international companies and proven myself to be the guy that can save the project. If you're looking for someone who'd be able to rock it starting from DB architecture (MySQL, MongoDB, Redis, Elasticsearch) to backend (NodeJS, PHP, Java) and, of course, frontend (Javascript, ES5, ES6, Angular, Aurelia), you're reading the right CV.

I have a strong mathematical background (see Honors Awards section) and I prefer to work in R&D where I can show my best. Also, during the past year I've been slowly moving towards management and IT sales. I'm an empathic communicator, good at pitching.
